

California Resident Online Privacy Policy
Effective Date: June 1, 2004

Welcome to our website. We¹ appreciate your interest in our business. When accessing certain portions of this website, minimal personally identifiable information is collected. When members logon to use the Spectera website, we collect the member's unique identification number, date of birth and zip code. This information is collected as a means of validating and identifying the person in order to gain access to the available information and services through the website.

If disclosures of any personal information are made, it is done within the parameters of applicable state and federal laws and regulations. The information collected is used only for the purpose in which it was provided.

If a member needs to change or update personally identifiable information that was used through our website, such an update must be done through the subscriber's employer.

If we make material changes to our online privacy policy, an announcement will be posted on our website home pages (www.spectera.com) alerting website users that a change in the policy has been made.
